

THE ETERNAL MAHATMA

SALMAN SOWDAGAR

What a personality was he!
The Great Mahatma Gandhi.
Mighty, wise, and friendly.
In him was no dearth of quality,
Which he used as a key,
To make our nation free,
From the clutches of British authority.

He struggled for India with glee,
And did not charge any fee.
His only demand was unity,
From every village, town, and city.
He filled our country,
With happiness and tranquility.
But today, unfortunately,
We have become so busy,
That we remember him only on Gandhi Jayanti.
