

A retaliation on the innocent

It's a bright day like any other

Far away from the loved ones

All are cheerful in their work

Not knowing it's the only last moment of their lives

There's a sudden thud in the building

As the plane crashed into the 98th floor,

Happy moments turned into a panic all over

No thought of what to do , where to go

For the battle of saving lives of our own

2nd crash occurred as if their quench is not sufficed

With the buildings engulfing

the innocent workers, people of its own

The world bends over with shame & fear

With the people killing

The people of their own

The Al-Qaeda terrorists hijacked two planes and drove them into the most famous World trade centers on 11th of September 2001. This tragedy took about 3000 innocent & precious lives and injured 6000 civilians. The people were plunged into a sudden terror at the moment not knowing what to do. It's been about 18 years aftermath of this tragedy but similar attack took place in Kabul on this anniversary . The quench of the narrow-minded terrorists seems to be unfulfilled. Why such a well-fashioned attack is signaled on 9/11 anniversary? What do they want to inculcate in the minds of the innocent ? Fear ????
